Longleaf Partners Small-Cap Fund added 0.76% in the first quarter, meaningfully outperforming the Russell 2000 Index, which declined 7.53%. In a volatile quarter for markets across the globe, our companies made solid progress across the board. Better relative stock performance across most sectors drove our outperformance. Our investment in US natural gas company CNX Resources was the strongest absolute performer, as demand for domestic natural gas increased and energy prices skyrocketed due to Russia's invasion of Ukraine. We wrote more extensively on our

As reported in the May 1, 2021 prospectus, the total expense ratio for the Small-Cap Fund is 0.96%. Effective September 1, 2021, Southeastern has contractually committed to limit operating expenses (excluding interest, taxes, brokerage commissions and extraordinary expenses) to 0.95% of average net assets per year. This agreement is in effect through at least April 30, 2023 and may not be terminated before that date without Board approval.*

Holdings are subject to change. Past performance does not guarantee future results.

- CNX Resources – CNX appreciated as energy prices increased dramatically, and the critical nature of natural gas infrastructure and its ability to support Europe in limiting its dependence on Russia as an energy source was broadly recognized. CNX saw the benefits of its extensive share buyback program over the last year+ with free cash flow (FCF) nearing $3 per share. CNX increased the diversity and depth of experience of its board and executive management team in the quarter with the addition of Robert Agbede as a board director, Ravi Srivastava as President of New Technologies, and Hayley Scott as Chief Risk Officer.
- Oscar Health – A new position in 4Q 2021, US health insurance and software platform Oscar Health rebounded from dramatic post-IPO lows seen in 2021 (which gave us the opportunity to initiate the position). The company had become overly discounted primarily due to confusing financials and near-term losses as the company rapidly grew its health insurance subsidiary. In the first quarter, Oscar reported strong revenue growth and outlined expectations for higher long-term margins at its analyst day.

- Eastman Kodak – Our convertible preferred position in Kodak appreciated on the back of a $6 increase in book value per share growth in a single quarter as a result of its overfunded pension, fueled by strong performance and rising interest rates. The book value increase enhances Kodak's creditworthiness.
- Vimeo – Another new purchase in 4Q 2021, Vimeo, which was spun out of IAC last year, declined among a dramatic pullback in digital software companies in the quarter. This software company is misperceived and traded as a consumer business when it actually has a strongly growing enterprise business, but it is growing solidly at a 20% topline rate in the capable hands of CEO Anjali Sud and Chairman Joey Levin from IAC.
- Lanxess – German-listed specialty chemical company Lanxess's cyclical exposure to commodities and industrial inputs weighed heavily on its share price in the quarter. While we invested in this German-listed company because of its ownership of previous Small-Cap Fund winner Chemtura, its exposure to Russian gas drove the stock price in the quarter. This is a still-evolving situation where the European headlines do not relate 100% to the full value of this company. Management has shifted the fundamental profile of the business from a legacy European commodity chemicals business to a much higher quality global specialty chemical company today. CEO Matthias Zachert recently indicated that Lanxess is considering strategic options for its High Performance Materials division, which we think would be a good move.
- Lumen – Lumen reported weak organic revenue growth and guided more weakness for 2022. We expect revenue growth to kick back in towards the end of 2022, and the huge FCF coupon helped offset value decline from the weaker guidance. The other factor weighing on the stock price was largest shareholder Temasek's partial sale of its 10% position in the quarter, creating uncertainty and a share price overhang. We have a 13D filed and continue to urge the company to take steps to address the significant price-to-value gap, including continued share buybacks.

Portfolio Activity

After adding five new positions in the second half of last year, we built out several of these newer holdings in the first quarter but did not buy any new businesses. We trimmed some of our stronger performers. We remain fully invested with just under 6% cash, and our on-deck list is growing longer amid market volatility. New investments have a high hurdle to qualify given our conviction in our current holdings and the steep discount of the portfolio, which trades at a High-50s% price-to-value ratio.

Outlook

In a challenging period of global uncertainty – amid fears of a potential world war, ongoing COVID concerns, rising interest rates/growing inflation and the potential for a pending recession – we were pleased with the solid progress made and value growth seen across our portfolio holdings. We own companies that have pricing power that can price through cost increases and grow their profitability as a result. Our companies come from a position of financial strength with aligned, proven management teams that can take proactive steps to manage through challenging market environments.

RISKS

The Longleaf Small-Cap Fund is subject to stock market risk, meaning stocks in the Fund may fluctuate in response to developments at individual companies or due to general market and economic conditions. Also, because the Fund generally invests in 15 to 25 companies, share value could fluctuate more than if a greater number of securities were held. Smaller company stocks may be more volatile with less financial resources than those of larger companies.

The Russell 2000 Index measures the performance of the 2,000 smallest companies in the Russell 3,000 Index, which represents approximately 10% of the total market capitalization of the Russell 3000 Index. The Russell 2000 Value index is drawn from the constituents of the Russell 2000 based on book-to-price (B/P) ratio. An index cannot be invested in directly.

Free Cash Flow (FCF) is a measure of a company's ability to generate the cash flow necessary to maintain operations. Generally, it is calculated as operating cash flow minus capital expenditures.

IPO is an initial public offering.

P/V ("price-to-value") is a calculation that compares the prices of the stocks in a portfolio to Southeastern's appraisal of their intrinsic values. The ratio represents a single data point about a Fund and should not be construed as something more. P/V does not guarantee future results, and we caution investors not to give this calculation undue weight.

A 13D filing is generally required for any beneficial owner of more than 5% of any class of registered equity securities, and who are not able to claim an exemption for more limited filings due to an intent to change or influence control of the issuer.
